JACKSON GOES BACK TO RANCH

New York, Aug. 30. — "Tut" Jackson, erstwhile aspirant to the heavyweight pugilistic supremacy is going back today to his farm near Washington Courthouse, Ohio, having decided last night that the knocks one gets in the bang-up world of flatfists are altogether too hard. After having knocked out something like forty opponents, "Tut" recently said he would like to meet Harry Wills, New Orleans negro heavyweight, who is after Dempsey's title. He met him last night. They poked gloves at each other for rounds and two minutes and five seconds of another, when Wills swung a right to Jackson's kidneys. "Tut" tried to get up but couldn't.

SMALL TRUNKS NEEDED FOR RUSSIAN MONEY

Moscow, Aug. 30. — Americans contemplating visits to Russia should bring with them suitcases of ample proportions in which to carry their money, for ordinary pocket books have long since ceased to be adequate for carrying the huge quantities of paper currency that one is required to have in order to exist. The following menu from one of Moscow's leading restaurants indicates that one can dine rather well for 25,000, 000 or 30,000,000 rubles.

Beefsteak 5,000,000 rubles, potatoes 3,500,000, soup 3,500,000, ham (two slices) 4,000,000, cauliflower 5,000,000, chops 5,000,000, strawberries 4,000,000, coffee 1,250,000.

LIKE ROSTER OF STARS

A list of noted players which makes the cast look almost like a roster of stars was chosen for "The Dictator," a new Paramount picture starring Wallace Reid, which will be on view at the Oregon theater for three days, beginning Sunday.

Lila Lee is leading woman; Theodore Kosloff has a highly important role; Kalla Pasha, a Mack Sennett comedian, is cast in an appropriate part; Allan Hale, semi-heavy of "One Glorious Day," and Walter Long, heavy actor in "The Sheikh" and "Moran of the Lady Letty," two George Melford productions, are included in big character parts, and Fred Butler and Sidney Bracey are seen in good roles.

This is Willie Collier's famous stage success done into a screen play by Walter Woods. The original was by the late Richard Harding Davis. The production is filled with intensely dramatic moments.

Maybe the British refusal to aid America in sweeping liquor smugglers from the seas was inspired by a fear that Englishmen wouldn't be able to tell a rum-runner from a United States Shipping Board craft.

CHANGED HIS DESTINY

"Come home at once — your mother is dying."

This seemingly terrible bit of news, conveyed over the wires from Newark, N. J., to Cody, Wyo., changed the destiny of a man's life.

Had the late Hal Reid not chosen this rather startling means to bring his son, Wallace Reid, back home the popular Paramount star might still be building dams and raising horses and alfalfa in the west instead of starring in "The Dictator," a Paramount picture adapted from Richard Harding Davis' famous play, which comes to the Oregon theater next week.

Father Reid, being an actor and dramatist, did things in a melodramatic way. Wally was making good as an engineer and rancher, and he knew he would have to startle him to bring him back to Jersey.

Wally hopped the train and went all the way to Chicago in his boots and corduroys. In the latter city he bought a hand me down and continued his journey. His mother and father were out paying a social call when Wally arrived home and, of course, Wally was very much surprised to learn that she was not dying.

Wally then started to work on the old Newark Morning Star as a reporter, and this work later led him into vaudeville and thence to motion pictures.

550,000 VOTERS SEEK TEST VOTE ON PROHIBITION

Chicago, Aug. 30. — Mounted on a decorated truck, a petition signed by 550,000 voters of Chicago and Illinois, asking for a referendum on light wines and beer, was paraded through the loop today before starting under convoy for Springfield to be filed in Secretary of State Emerson's office.

The petition asks that a test of sentiment on modification of the Volstead act be made in the November election. The vote would have no legal effect.

ONE OF PAIR IS FINED FOR ACCOSTING WOMEN

Clifford Walsh who, in company with Charles Ketchner, was Monday night arrested and charged with accosting two women on a downtown Salem street, pleaded guilty to the charge before Police Judge Earl Race yesterday afternoon and was sentenced to pay a fine of $20. Ketchner's case was dismissed by Judge Race.

The two men were taken into custody by Patrolmen Victor and Branson. They said they were employees of the state hospital.

The Literary Digest states that for its poll on the Volstead act and the Eighteenth Amendment it obtained many of its names from the telephone directories. This is scarcely fair to the "drys." Most of those chaps have already been driven to drink.

JOFFRE GIVES WELCOME TO YANKEE LEGIONNAIRES

Paris, Aug. 30. — (By Associated Press) — Marshal Joffre at the Invalides palace yesterday welcomed a group of members of the American Legion who came to France some time ago to visit the battlefields.

The legionnaires left Paris last night for Brussels, where they will be received by the king and queen.

The safe way to buy motor oil

Buy motor oil that is free from destructive "sulpho" compounds. Such oil has stability. It does not break down nor thin out rapidly under engine heat.

Cycol is the only motor oil made by the new Hexeon process. This process is used only by us. It completely removes destructive "sulpho" compounds.

Thus Cycol retains its "body" under engine heat. It maintains the essential lubricating film between moving parts. It sustains an "oil tight" piston seal.
